Written by Hand Taken to Heart is the name in our area of the Biblefresh initiative. This year that marks the 400th Anniversary of the King James Bible is being marked in all sorts of ways. Starting on the 11th July for two weeks, we shall have the opportunity to write by hand a part of the Bible - look out for it in the Foyer, 11 am to 3pm. Booklets and material will be available to help you 'take it to heart' - ideas welcome! As long as the ink is indelible, you may choose any version of the Bible to copy a few verses from, and take them to heart! It looks like we'll be writing the end of Revelation, and Philipians!

Volunteers to staff the Scriptorium in the Foyer 11:00am—3:00pm this week and next, please contact Rob.

Men's Night Out - first Tuesday of the month that isn't a housegroup week.

Meet in the Bar'tat at 8pm. All welcome. See Martin Whitton or Mark Cade for further details.

For the diary, the dates this year are - 6th Sept, 11th Oct, 8th Nov,

Worship Consultation - Wednesday 13th July

Something for everybody!

It's time to review our 10:30am worship. Do you have any ideas, thoughts, concerns or comments you would like to share? Anything that will make our 10:30am service even more engaging.

Readers Needed!

CTI are celebrating the 400th anniversary of the King James Version of the Bible by holding a 24 hour readathon from August 16th at 7:00pm to the 17th at 7:00pm.

There are a number of different time slots that Christchurch needs to provide the readers for.

Please volunteer, this is a very special event to be part of. Ask Margaret Cook (603504) or Ruth Jones (608985) for details.
