Churches Together In Ilkley – Churches Together Walk

On Bank Holiday Monday 29th August CTI is holding a walk around the boundaries of the town culminating in a bring your own picnic and (organised) games at the Cow and Calf rocks.

The walk will be around 5 miles in total and people can do the whole walk or just do a short section.

The walk is open to everyone of all ages.

The idea will be to enjoy God's beautiful creation, have fun and fellowship together and also to pray for the town as we walk. At the end of each short section of the walk a different part of the town will be prayed for.

Walk begins at 11am and concludes at approximately 3pm

Please reply to Rev Lee Townend to confirm your place(s) - more details will follow tel: 01943 430693
email: leethevicar@gmail.com

IF YOU COULD ONLY CHOOSE ONE.....

As a lead-up to the King James Bible Readathon on 16-17th of August, Churches Together in Ilkley plans a survey of people's "favourite" passage from the Bible. What passage do you love most, is most meaningful to you? It may be very easy or very difficult for you to choose but just to think about and perhaps to discuss it with others will in itself surely be a worthwhile exercise.

Survey slips will be available to fill in on Sunday 31st July and the following week. Please take part and encourage others to do so. The results should be interesting and will be published in the week before the Readathon.
