You are invited to include the following suggestions of local and broader concern in your private prayer during the year.

As a Christmas event, Noah's looking to put on a "progressive dinner" for the youth on the evening of December 14th and is looking for people to host a portion of the meal in their home.

If you're interested in providing either an appetizer, a main or a pudding for about 12 young people plus 2-3 leaders, then please get in touch with Noah on 07726 286420 or at noah@christchurchilkley.org.uk

The 2015 Dan's Den at Christchurch Calendar is available now from the Christchurch Café or from Margo Atkinson, cost £6.

I wish to thank everyone who send old post cards to me for the benefit of Mission Aviation Fellowship. I have quite a collection now, so I shall pass them on when we have a regional MAF day at the end of November. They will be put to good use.

Many thanks again also to Roger Bareham who acts as a good courier.

Blessings to you all.

I was reflecting on what a lovely summer we have had, when the postie delivered the Christian Aid Christmas Appeal 2014 through my door.

Looking through it, I thanked God for all the blessings we have enjoyed in 2014, not least the glorious weekend of the Grand Depart, and then I spotted one of the gift ideas... For £33 Christian Aid will provide bicycles to a vulnerable young girls, giving her the independence to travel to school safely and receive an education.

In response, Housegroup three invite you all to the Manse on Saturday 6th December between 12:00 and 2:00pm for soup and a roll and a chat. There's no charge, just a donation to the cause. Wouldn't it be great to send 10 bicycles from Christchurch?!

In response to the many appeals for aid to combat the devastating spread of EBOLA , an amount of £1,000 has been sent, via the Disasters Emergency Committee (DEC) whose member charities are already on the ground in West Africa.

This money comes from the amount allocated to the World and Society Group.
