The CAP Money Management Course - Offering a hand in hard times

Our next Money Management Course runs on Friday evenings in Christchurch Café from 7.30-9.30 on Fridays 16th, 23rd & 30th January.

All of us have a responsibility to be aware of the needs of our friends, acquaintances, neighbours. We can help and support them towards the Money Management Course, the Credit Union or even the CAP debt management service.

Please be Christ's open eyes and ears in the community; where you think someone might benefit from the Money Management Course, talk to me. I will be delighted to explain what it is about and encourage them to come, with you if that would help.

Youth Alpha Catering

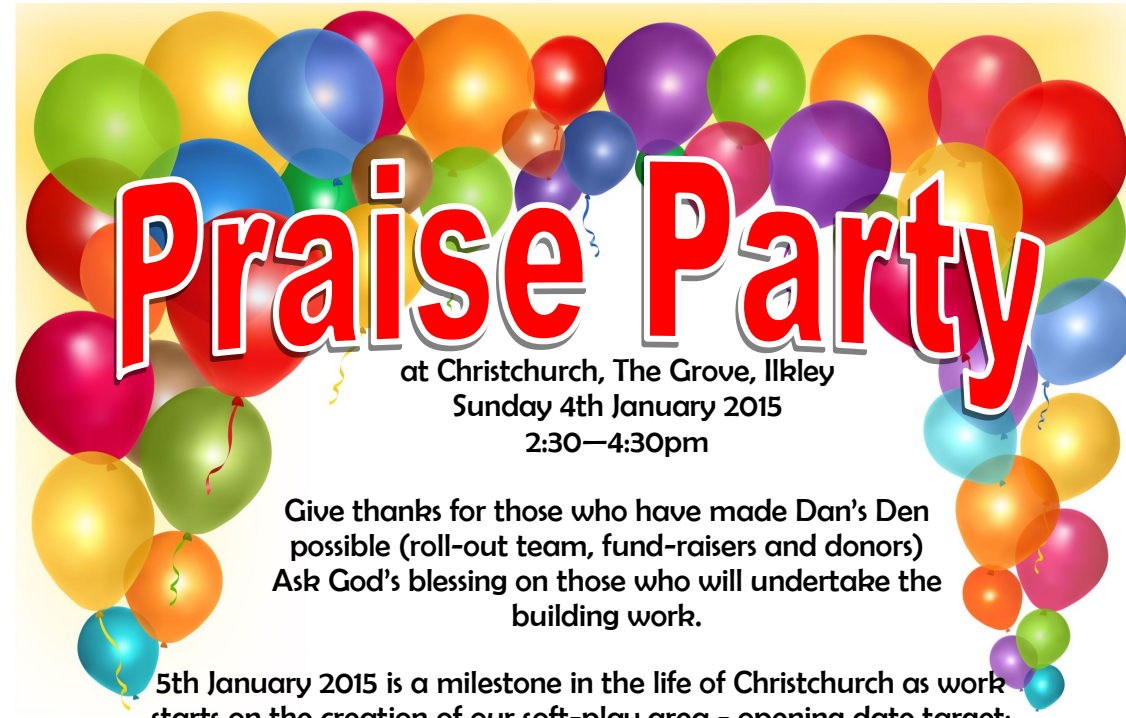

Scope are hosting a Youth Alpha course on Sunday nights starting January 11th. We're looking for volunteers to contribute one or more meals during the 10 week course. We're catering for about 20 people.

They're youth, so nothing too fancy required- I know for a fact some of them actually enjoy eating Pot Noodle!

If you think you can help with that, please let Noah know at noah@christchurchilkley.org.uk or ring 07726 286420.

The Wednesday Fellowship Quiz— We have a new “Towns and Villages Quiz” available, cost £1 in aid of the National Autistic Society. We hope you will support us in this effort. Copies of the quiz are available from Joan Loach.
