 To help make our forthcoming Jigsaw Festival a success we are asking for your help in volunteering to steward the event and/or provide cakes for our cake stall.

Please sign up on the sheets in the foyer or have a word with Pam Harris or Brian Scott

Thank you.

Melting Pot

This Autumn, Melting Pot will be meeting monthly in the Café on Sunday evenings at 7:30pm (half an hour earlier than previously) on 09 October, 11 November and 13 December.

This evening, as a complement to the Housegroups, we will be looking at the Old Testament - who wrote it, when did they compile it, and how do we interpret truth from myth? In particular, we will be examining the three sources that make up the first five 'Books of Moses' (not written by Moses!).

As usual, we will have some input based on modern research followed by discussion.

Everyone very welcome.

Steve Amos

Ilkley Baptist Church are launching a new style of service to happen whenever there is a 5th Sunday in the month.

The evening service on 30th October, 2016, will be our first Praise and Worship service. There will be no sermon, instead, we feature some contemporary songs and hymns, coupled with prayer, stories and testimony.

We hope that people will come along to try this new worship experience, and the service begins at 6-30pm.

Christchurch Café News

On Thursday the Trustees agreed a number of changes to the way that the Café will be managed. These include the appointment of a full-time Café Manager along with a new Management Team.

The plan is to make all the changes by the end of this year after which the Café will open 10:00 until 3:30 six days a week.

The aim is to maintain the caring and welcoming environment while facilitating best management practices. Overall, there will be fewer hours worked by paid employees. We still wish to have volunteers present every day throughout opening hours, including those with disabilities and expect to employ students on a Saturday alongside the Manager.

A full announcement has already been made about the changes to all contracted Café staff.

If you would like to know any more there will be an update given at the Congregational Meeting on 10th October or, in the interim, please feel free to ask Helen Singleton, Merle Collins, Juliet Amos or Roland Henney who have been appointed to oversee the changes.

Congregational Meeting: Monday 10th October

The next ordinary Congregational Meeting will take place on Monday 10th October 2017 at 7.30 pm.

There will be several important items on the agenda for consideration by the meeting, including:

- * Outcomes from The Listening Year;
- * Proposed Changes to the Pattern of Sunday Worship;
- * Plans for an Evangelism Strategy;
- * Continuing Concern about the Church's Financial Situation;
- * Update on the Café Review.

It is hoped that there will be a good level of attendance.

Anyone wishing to raise a matter for consideration by the meeting is asked to notify either Michael Noble or Chris Mannall in advance.

The Good Book Quiz—Have you tried our fun Bible quiz yet? Every clue leads to a Book of the Bible. Copies available in the foyer.

Answers will appear in the next issue of Wider Horizons.
